ARTICLE 7: RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1 Organizer's Responsibility

The responsibility of the Organizer is strictly limited to the delivery of prizes effectively and validly won by the Winners.

Each Prize awarded to the Winners is managed by the Organizer's partner(s). The Organizer shall not be held liable in any way for any non-performance or improper performance of services or the validity of the Prize attributable to its partners, or for any act attributable either to the Winner, or to an unforeseeable and insurmountable act of a third party unrelated to the service.

The Organizer does not guarantee that the Website and the Giveaway will be free from anomalies, errors, or bugs.

In any case, the Organizer cannot be held responsible for any failure to fulfill its obligations under this regulation, which would be attributable either to the Participant, or to an unforeseeable and insurmountable act of a third party unrelated to the provision of obligations arising from this regulation, or to a force majeure event.

Likewise, the Organizer is not responsible for any development defects, malfunctions, incompatibility with other computer programs installed on the participant's hard drive, or in the event of loss or alteration of the participant's data, following participation in the Giveaway.

The Organizer reserves the right to shorten, extend, postpone, modify, or cancel this regulation if circumstances so require. In any case, its liability cannot be incurred in this regard. In such circumstances, the Organizer will make its best efforts to implement technical means to inform Participants on the Website.

The Organizer will make every effort to allow access to the Giveaway at any time, without being under any obligation to do so. The Organizer may, at any time, particularly for technical reasons, updates, maintenance, interrupt access to the Website and the Giveaway, or cancel said Giveaway. The Organizer will not be liable for these interruptions or cancellations and their consequences.

The Organizer will use all means with its service providers to ensure that the Winner determination system and the Prize allocation comply with the Giveaway regulation. If, despite this, a malfunction occurs and affects the Winner determination system, the Organizer cannot be held liable towards the Participants beyond the number of prizes announced in the Giveaway regulation.

7.2 Participant's Responsibility

It is expressly reminded that it is the sole responsibility of the Participant to ensure that the information provided during registration for the Giveaway, including their contact details, are correct and sincere, and that they will enable them to participate in the Giveaway and, if applicable, to receive the prize they have won.

Participation in the Giveaway implies fair conduct, in compliance with these regulations.

The Organizer reserves the right to disqualify, without notice, and/or not to award a Prize to any Participant who has violated the provisions of these regulations, particularly through fraud, or even to take legal action against them before the competent courts.

As such, any incomplete, inaccurate, falsified participation, containing false information, not complying with the regulations, or received after the Giveaway date will be considered null and void and will result in the elimination of the Participant. Likewise, any participation by mail will be rejected.

It is strictly prohibited, by any means whatsoever, to modify or attempt to modify the proposed Giveaway mechanisms, particularly in order to alter the results or to influence the validity of the draw or the designation of a Winner in an automated or unfair manner. If it appears that a Participant has apparently won a prize in violation of these regulations, by fraudulent means, such as automated search or the use of an algorithm, or by means other than those resulting from the process described by the Organizer on the Application or by these regulations, the relevant prize will not be awarded to them and will remain the property of the Organizer, without prejudice to any legal action that may be taken against the participant by the organizing company or by third parties.

ARTICLE 8: REIMBURSEMENT OF PARTICIPATION EXPENSES

The Giveaway is free of charge and without obligation to make a purchase. It is accessible only via the Internet.

Participation expenses in the Giveaway are covered by the Organizer, upon simple request sent by mail to:

SNCF Connect

"Grand jeu SNCF Connect, la semaine de l'Europe"

2, place de la Défense

CNIT 1 – BP 440

92053 Paris La Défense Cedex

Any request for reimbursement must be accompanied by the participant's name, first name(s), and address, the name of the Giveaway, a Bank Identity Statement (or RIP, or RICE), a copy of an identity document, and a copy of the detailed invoice from the Internet service provider to which they are subscribed. To be taken into account, any request must be sent in writing no later than one month after the closing date of the Giveaway, as evidenced by the postmark.

The reimbursement covers the costs related to Internet connection and will be made on a flat-rate basis of €0.22, corresponding to 3 minutes of communication at the local rate during peak hours (average connection duration to the Website to participate in the Giveaway).

The stamp for the request for reimbursement of connection fees will also be refunded (based on €0.41, corresponding to the current slow rate, for a letter weighing less than 20 grams) upon simple request made in the request for reimbursement of connection fees.

The costs related to photocopies of supporting documents are reimbursed at a rate of €0.07 per sheet and up to 2 copies, upon simple request made in the request for reimbursement of connection fees.

Each shipment must include only one request for reimbursement, for a single Participant.

Since participation in the Giveaway is limited to one per person and per household, the Organizer cannot consider more than one request for reimbursement of fees submitted by a Participant during the entire duration of the Giveaway.

Reimbursement will be made by bank transfer, sent within 60 days of receiving the request, after verifying the validity of the request, including the compliance of the information contained in the reimbursement request letter with the information recorded on the registration form entered on the Website.

Given that, under current service offerings and technology, most Internet service providers offer free or flat-rate connections to Internet users, it is expressly agreed that any access to the Website cannot give rise to any reimbursement, to the extent that the subscription to the services of the Internet service provider is contracted by the Participant for their general use of the Internet and that the Participant's connection to the Website and participation in the Giveaway do not incur any additional costs or expenses for them.

ARTICLE 9: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Organizer and its partners own all intellectual property rights related to the Website and the Giveaway. These rights belong to them, or they hold the rights of use related thereto. Access to the Website and participation in the Giveaway do not grant the Participant any rights to these intellectual property rights.

Therefore, it is strictly prohibited to reproduce, represent, modify, transmit, publish, adapt, on any medium, by any means, or to exploit in any way, all or part of the website or the elements related to the Giveaway without the prior written authorization of the Organizer and/or its partners.
